

LET'S TALK, READ AND SING ABOUT SUMMER

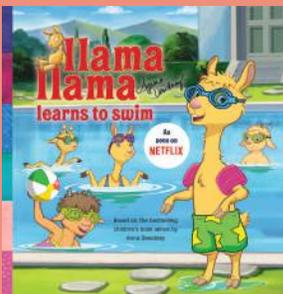

BOOK AND VIDEO RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

BOOKS

Llama, llama Learns to Swim

By: Anna Dewdney

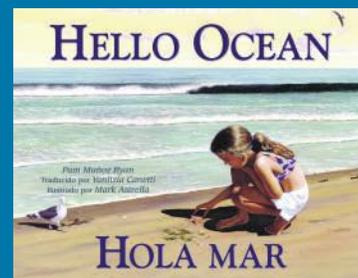

Llama llama gets invited to go to the beach with his friends, but he is nervous because he doesn't know how to swim. Join Llama llama as his family helps teach him how to swim!

Hello Ocean

By: Pam Munoz Ryan

Follow along as a young girl visits her friend the ocean. She uses all five of her senses: sight, sound, touch, smell, and taste to describe her many experiences. Talk about senses and how they help us learn about our world.

In Summer...
En Verano...

In Summer

By: Susanna Madinabeitia Manso

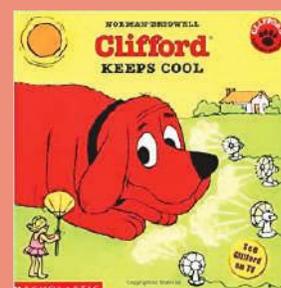

What do you like to do in the summer? Do you like baseball? Do you like playing in the water? This board book features simple photographs of things a child might like to do in the summer. Ask your child what she likes to do!

I See Summer

By: Charles Ghigna

Summer is filled with many sights...sunshine, sailboats, flowers, bugs, picnics, and so much more! After you explore this book with your child, go on a fun walk together to see what summer sights you can find!

Clifford Keeps Cool (Clifford the Big Red Dog)

By: Norman Bridwell

Clifford the big red dog gets very hot in the summer. He tries to cool off around town but because he is so big, he causes all sorts of trouble! Children will love guessing how Clifford will stay cool during hot summer days.

VIDEO

Video: Sesame Street: Summer Anthem Song | Fun in the Sun!

There is so much to love about summer! Join Cookie Monster, Abby Cadabby, and Elmo as they sing about their favorite parts of summer! From going to the pool to playing in the playground, there are so many ways to play and have fun this season. Sing along with the video here.

For more tips and information, please visit: www.talkingisteaching.org

