

LET'S TALK, READ AND SING ABOUT FAMILY

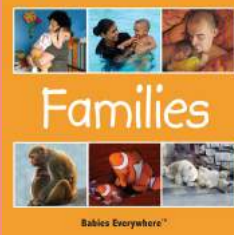

BOOK AND VIDEO RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

BOOKS

Families

By: Star Bright Books

All families care for their children in similar ways. Explore this fun book of photos showing human and animal families doing things they like to do together, like walking, playing, eating, and hugging!

Federico and All His Families

By: Mili Hernandez

Federico is a very special cat. He has lots of families that he visits throughout the day. Each family is unique and different, just like yours! Join Federico as he says hello to all his families!

My Family and I

By: Gladys Rosa-Mendoza

Join little Emma as she invites you to meet her family! Young children will learn all about the concept of family, including words like mom, brother, aunt, grandfather, and more, in both English and Spanish.

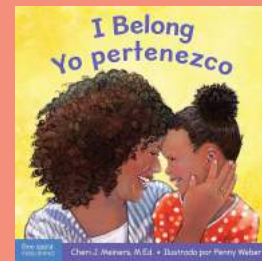

I Belong

By: Cheri J. Meiners

Our family is a place where we always belong. This simple book shows very young children what it means to belong at home or in a group. Warm illustrations show children doing things with family and friends that make them feel safe, loved, and happy.

The Family Book

By: Todd Parr

Some families are big. Some families are small. Some are quiet and some are loud. There are many ways to be a family! Talk about and celebrate how families are alike and different with this fun and colorful book.

VIDEO

Family Song

Families come in all shapes and sizes! Dance and sing along to this upbeat song on what families can look like. What does your family look like? Watch the video by our partners at Sesame Workshop here.

For more tips and information, please visit:

www.talkingisteaching.org

